

VLT

The Very Little Theatre
2350 Hilyard St., Eugene

AUDITIONS

Frost/Nixon

A thoroughly modern Shakespearean tragedy
Directed by Darryl Marzyck

Richard Nixon has just resigned the U.S. Presidency in disgrace over the Watergate scandal. British talk-show host David Frost risks his career on a series of interviews to extract an apology from Nixon, but the cagey ex-president is equally determined to redeem himself in the public's eye.

Saturday, May 19 • 1-4 p.m.

CALLBACKS:

Sunday, May 20 • 1-4 p.m.

Roles available and age ranges:

Richard Nixon (55-65)
David Frost (35-45)
Swifty Lazar (55-70)
Bob Zelnick (40-55)
Jim Reston (35-45)
Jack Brennan (30-40)

Caroline Cushing (30-40)
Manolo Sanchez (35-50)
John Birt (40-55)

There will also be five Studio Tech roles (men/women ages 25-55) who will cover assorted roles throughout the play.

Show runs August 10-25 on VLT's Main Stage

For more information or scripts, contact director
Darryl Marzyck at marzyck@gmail.com

The Very Little Theatre, one of the oldest and most successful community theatres in the country, is in its 89th SEASON.